

Daylight Saving Time Social Posts

Facebook:

- It's recycle o'clock! Daylight Saving Time is the perfect moment to turn back your clocks and turn in your batteries: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

- With Daylight Saving Time coming up, answer the call to recycle and keep your batteries out of landfills: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

Facebook (continued):

- As you turn back the clock on Daylight Saving Time, remember to check your other devices and recycle your old batteries! <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

- While you're turning back your clock for Daylight Saving Time, why not check on your other devices at home? Replace the batteries in your smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, then recycle the old ones at your nearest drop-off location: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

Facebook (continued):

- Daylight Saving Time is the perfect time to protect the environment, too. Turn back your clocks and turn in your old batteries by visiting a recycling center near you:
<http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

Protect the Earth

Recycle your batteries

call2recycle
Leading the charge for recycling.

Daylight Saving Time is the perfect time to recycle your old batteries!

Use the Call2Recycle® drop-off locator to find a convenient collection site near you!
call2recycle.org/locator

Twitter:

- #DaylightSaving Time is the perfect time to turn back your clocks and turn in your batteries: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

call2recycle
Leading the charge for recycling.

TURN BACK YOUR CLOCKS.
TURN IN YOUR BATTERIES.

With convenient battery collection locations across the U.S., Call2Recycle® makes it easy to do the right thing.

Find a location near you at call2recycle.org/locator

BATTERIES

- With #DaylightSaving coming up, answer the call to #recycle and save your batteries too: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

Follow your call to recycle!

While turning back your clocks on Nov. 6th for Daylight Saving Time, check your other devices at home to replace their batteries.

Find the nearest drop-off location at call2recycle.org/locator

call2recycle
Leading the charge for recycling.

Twitter (continued):

- As we all turn back the clock on #DaylightSaving, remember to turn in your old batteries: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

- #DYK: #DaylightSaving is the perfect time to turn back clocks & turn in old batteries: <http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

Twitter (continued):

- #DaylightSaving Time is the perfect time to protect the #environment! #WasteNoMore
<http://www.call2recycle.org/locator>

The graphic is a promotional message for Call2Recycle. It features a light green background on the left and a teal background on the right. On the left, there is a circular icon of a globe with green continents. Above the globe is the text "Protect the Earth" and below it is "Recycle your batteries". On the right, the "call2recycle" logo is at the top, with the tagline "Leading the charge for recycling." below it. The main text reads "Daylight Saving Time is the perfect time to recycle your old batteries!". At the bottom, it says "Use the Call2Recycle® drop-off locator to find a convenient collection site near you!" followed by the URL "call2recycle.org/locator".

Protect the Earth

Recycle your batteries

call2recycle
Leading the charge for recycling.

Daylight Saving Time is the perfect time to recycle your old batteries!

Use the Call2Recycle® drop-off locator to find a convenient collection site near you!
call2recycle.org/locator